

THE LAST GUNDIR BOOK II: WRONG SIDE

Across

- 3 Skin moiety paired with Banjur (6)
- 5 Marsupial in the same totem group as brown snake and eaglehawk (8)
- 7 World's tallest heath plant, found only in Tasmania (7)
- 9 Serious contender for Queensland's capital when separation from NSW was debated (7)
- 10 The "white stone" gundir (7)
- 13 Present day name of home of Palawa tribe (8)
- 14 Creek where John Oxley had breakfast in 1824 (9,5)
- 17 Original name for Spring Hill suburb (7)
- 18 Present day city where one would hear woi wurrung language (9)
- 20 Original name for Fraser Island (5)
- 22 Apex predator that went extinct in Tasmania in 1936 (9)
- 24 Name for an Aboriginal meeting of elders (4)
- 25 Fruit that was rented out by 1800s London grocers (9)
- 27 Present day name of Kau-In Kau-In (9)
- 28 Cathedral that was the tallest building in London until 1963 (2,4)
- 29 River in London (6)

Down

- 1 Largest Aboriginal gathering on continent (5,3)
- 2 Four farthings made up a ____ in english currency (5)
- 4 What one would do during a match of Gurumda in present day Manumbar locality (7)
- 6 Present day name for the island of Yarun (6,6)
- 8 Brisbane suburb where Australia's first pineapple was grown (6)
- 11 Last person to be executed legally for witchcraft in the UK (5,5)
- 12 First country to use decimal currency in 1704 (6)
- 14 Original name for Mount Archer in QLD (6)
- 15 Henry ____, First Commandant of Moreton Bay Penal Colony (6)
- 16 A hexafoil (six petalled flower in a circle) symbol was known as the "____ Mark" (7)
- 19 "Swedish ____", a series of gymnastics movements invented in 1800s to promote public health (5)
- 21 Original name for Stanley River in QLD (8)
- 23 Decommissioned ships used as prisons in 1800s England (5)
- 26 Bird in the same totem group as the possum and bee (3)

All the answers in Wrong Side >>

"We can observe the real window into Moreton Bay's past in this evocative volume, Wrong Side.

For here, the past is humanised rather than sanitised."

- Raymond Evans
(Historian and Poet)

